

The Bransford-Harris wedding is already a memory, but those who witnessed it will never forget the marvelous beauty of the entire occasion. While it lasted it dazzled and when it faded away it left nothing but beautiful memories of a most memorable occasion.

For the coming week a number of delightful affairs will receive the attention of society. On Tuesday will occur the marriage of Miss Maude Hardy and Dr. George T. Odell, and a reception at the home of Mrs. L. C. Miller.

Wednesday evening the members of the Young Ladies Aid society will give a tea at the home of Miss Esther Freed. The house will be prettily decorated for the event and all the members of the society will assist in entertaining. A short musical programme will be given by Mrs. Montague Ferry, Miss Sibyl Anderson, Mr. Shepherd, Mr. Sam C. Park and a quartette from the Orpheus club.

For Thursday two pleasant affairs are scheduled, one at the home of Mrs. H. A. Whitney and the other at the home of Mrs. Osmond.

Saturday will be notable for a reception given by Mrs. F. S. Richards, Mrs. Dewey Richards and Mrs. Joseph Richards.

Afternoon Card Party.

Mrs. Julia Kimball, Mrs. Russell

Woodruff and Miss Kimball gave a large and enjoyable card party Thursday afternoon. The rooms were bright with autumn flowers and the fifteen tables were decorated with score cards painted with realistic scenes from the golf links. Caddies and golf sticks made an effective decoration for the tables. The first prize, a gold golf pin, was won by Mrs. F. J. Fabian. Mrs. George F. Downey won the second prize, a cut-glass bon-bon dish, and as a consolation prize Miss Stella Walker was given a prettily decorated golf tally.

Among the players were Mrs. F. J. Downey, Mrs. R. J. Glendinning, Mrs. G. L. Nye, Mrs. J. L. Franken, Mrs. E. H. Babcock, Mrs. D. J. Sharp, Mrs. J. N. Sharp, Mrs. S. C. Park, Mrs. E. S. Ferry, Mrs. Montague Ferry, Mrs. F. W. Jennings, Mrs. Caine, Mrs. O. Smith, Mrs. Wells of Helena, Mrs. D. S. Murray, Mrs. Hawking, Mrs. C. E. McCullough, Mrs. J. R. Walker, Mrs. W. Jones, Mrs. W. V. Rice, Mrs. J. H. Young, Mrs. H. W. Lawrence, Mrs. William Reid, Mrs. Kenneth Kerr, Mrs. Misses Webber, Nason, Adelaide Nason, Hanauer, Ida Hanauer, Geddes, Colton, Burke, Thorn, Park, Lowe, Scholes, Walker, Stella Walker, Crawford, Woodruff, Anderson, Murray, Sprague, Roundy, Kirkpatrick, Cleary, McGrath, Marshall, Sadler.

Jolly Dinner.

Miss Ruth Kirkpatrick gave a jolly dinner Monday evening to Miss Flora Griffin and her bridesmaids. The bridesmaids were all this season's debutantes and they entered heartily into the fun of the evening, responding to a toast with a zest that would do credit to their older sisters. Miss Constance Kirkpatrick acted as toastmaster, and the responses were not only clever, but decidedly apropos. "Old Flaming" was responded to by the bride-elect. "Is Marriage a Failure?" was given in a witty manner by Mrs. Charles E. McCullough. "The Groom" was responded to in the following way by Miss Davidson:

I give you the groom.
With this girl for a wife,
May he never know gloom
Or the shade of a strife.
Here's to the groom and love all a-bloom.

Among others given were "Mixed Pickles," "King Lear," "Girls" and "Charles the First," each one containing a sly hit at some fair guest. The final one, "We Who Are Left," contained the following words of comfort:

Oh, weep not, gentle sisters,
Be comforted and pray,
And banish this despondency.
There'll come a mail some day.
The summer's gone, sweet sisters,
The winter's cold and gray,
But springtime whispers lovingly,
"Perchance he'll come in May."

He may not be Apollo,
His blood may not be blue,
But if he comes, sisters,
Let's try and make him do.
So, dry your eyes, dear sisters,
He's sure to come some day,
And when he does, O heaven,
Don't let him get away.

The guests of the evening were Miss Griffin, Miss Davidson, Mrs. McCullough, Miss Terhune, Miss Josephine Katz, Miss Evelyn Thomas, Miss Alf, Miss Constance Kirkpatrick, Miss Lucille Jennings.

In Honor of Miss Annett.

Dr. Luella Miles and Mrs. John Sharp entertained at cards Friday afternoon for Miss Annett of Chicago. Autumn leaves were used with artistic effect in the parlors, while the tally and score cards were adorned with a beautiful floral design. Mrs. Gallagher, Mrs. Cowan and Miss Annett won handsome souvenirs of the occasion.

To meet Miss Annett there were present Mesdames Paul, Edwin Kimball, Dart, Forbes, Bowman, Markland, Vollmer, Cowan, Trent, John Sharp, D. J. Sharp, Brink, Moore, Brown, Keith, Carpenter, Terhune, Howard, Peery, Marshall, T. B. Beatty, Bower, Putnam, Scheu, J. Kimball, Woodruff, Lawrence, J. H. Putnam, Scarff, Connor, Misses Paul, Trent, Frankie Sharp, Annett, Terhune, Kimball, Young, Lowe, Shearman, Edna Shearman, Crawford, Preston.

At Sixty-Three.

Miss Ethel Lynn entertained at cards yesterday in honor of Miss Maud Hardy and Miss Pearl Culmer. Autumn leaves and flowers made the parlors bright and attractive for the players, among whom were: Mrs. Dana Smith, Mrs. Don Carlos Roberts, Mrs. W. L. Ellerbeck, Mrs. Roy Brown, Mrs. Charles Caine, the Misses Hardy, Winifred Hardy, Stanchfield, Florence Roundy, Georgie McKimmins, Ida Chandler, Carrie Williams, Stella Dunford, Maud Patterson, Catherine Culmer, Addie Hampton, Louise Odell, Fannie Bird, Ada Young, Elva Godbe, Hattie Jennings.

Delightful Hop.

A delightful hop was given Friday evening by a number of guests of the Fifth East hotel. The billiard room was beautifully decorated and arranged for dancing. Autumn leaves were used in profusion and an artistic arrangement of posters added to the beautiful effect. The lights were shaded with bright colored Japanese lanterns. The large hall was arranged with Oriental couches, tall palms and vases of cosmos and asters, while the dining room was in the autumnal tints—brown and gold.

A string orchestra was in attendance and the evening was a thoroughly delightful one. The affair was the first of a series that will help to make the autumn and winter evenings delightful. The hostesses of the occasion were Mrs. Keith, Mrs. Bartling, Mrs. Marcott, Mrs. L. U. King, Mrs. Jacobs, Mrs. Higby, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Newell, Mrs. J. A. Miner, Mrs. Bartling, Mrs. Read, Mrs. Carson, Mrs. Daggett, Mrs. Merrifield.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Royle, Mr. Jack Royle, Mrs. M. R. King, Mrs. Geoghegan, Mrs. Seabolt, Mr. and Mrs. Wood, Miss Hadley, Mrs. McClure, Mr. Sexton, Mr. Cleaver, Mr. Skinner, Mr. Luellwitz, Mr. Meloy, Mrs. R. D. Grant, Miss H. Zane, Miss K. #### Informal Card Party.

Mrs. Adams of Denver was the guest of honor at an informal card party given Friday evening by Miss McGrath. Prizes for the game were won by Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Hayden, Mr. Nelson and Mr. Boyd.

Present were Mrs. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Hayden, Mr. and Mrs. Rose, Miss Zane, Miss Freed, Miss Geddes, Miss

McMillan, Mr. Cunningham, Mr. Nason, Mr. Hooper, Mr. Goodwin, Mr. Orr, Mr. Boyd and Mr. Hagar.

Children's Party.

Friday afternoon Miss Treasie gave a children's party in honor of her small brother, Richard. The house was decorated with cosmos, carnations and smilax. Peanut games were played and prizes were won by Susie Naylor, Harold Lamb and Earl Hardy.

The guests were Birdie Langton, Harry Gleason, Grace Bird, Emma Rivera, Harold Lamb, Olie Naylor, Edna Rivers, Will Angier, S. M. Naylor, Will Bird, Golda Rea, Scott Bird, Ernest Hill, Valle Meakir, Earl Hardy, Richard Treasie, May Hardy, Bates Hardy, Frank Heininger, Leda Lowe, Gordon Naylor, Morris Moon.

Wedding Anniversary.

One of the most delightful events of the week was the reception given by Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Waltz. Monday evening, in honor of their fifth anniversary, the rooms were beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and cut flowers. Two large designs making up the dates "1895" and "1900" were especially pretty. A very novel programme, carrying out the idea of a wooden wedding, was much enjoyed by the guests. Punch was served by Mrs. J. H. Rivers in the dining room.

Dainty refreshments were served and prizes awarded. Mrs. Edward Howe was awarded first prize for the best carpenter work, while Mrs. S. P. Warren was given the booby. Mr. Edward Howe was awarded the first prize for the best archery, playing and Mr. S. P. Warren the booby.

Delightful Evening.

A. W. Smith entertained some friends Friday evening in honor of Mr. Reuben Squires, who has just returned home after an absence of two years in London and Paris. Piano music and singing by Mrs. Burns, Miss Midgley and Mr. Pike was a feature, and altogether a thoroughly good time was enjoyed by all. Those present were Mrs. Burns, Squires, Mrs. Midgley, Millie Atkins, Jennie Hart, Edna May, Alice Gilson, Sadie Squires, Laura Squires, Nellie Alley, Hattie White, Nellie Braby, Kate Alley, Mesdames Edwin Pike, A. W. Beam, F. L. Hart, Campbell, Jack Campbell, Braby, Jesse Smith, Johnson.
